

Mahima Raghav, Esq.

Senior Consultant for Claims Judicial and Legislative Affairs – West Region
Zurich North America
Irvine, California

Mahima brings her expertise and analytic skills to the unique legal landscape in the West. With her prior experience as a litigator in Worker's Compensation and as a Regional Litigation Manager, she has knowledge of practical details of law practice as well as the "big picture" concerns in handling a large volume of claims. She has also participated in internal projects using design-thinking, which has trained her to seek creative solutions to complex business challenges.

As part of this newly created social inflation task force, Mahima hopes to build a coalition among customers, brokers, and carriers. With efforts to educate the industry and bring the claims process to life for lawmakers, Mahima is committed to effectuating positive change for a fairer future.
